-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 29 August 2007.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In light of the amendment to claim 1, it is suggested that "or diagonal surfaces" (claim 5, lines 2-3) be deleted. Applicant should review the claims for any additional informalities.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,2,4-6 and 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Underwood et al (USP 6,035,476). The patent to Underwood discloses (with particular reference to figure 6) a toothbrush comprising a body (100) as well as a plurality of tufts the free ends of which are all beveled (some of which define plural beveled surfaces). In an effort to identify the portions of the bundles in Underwood, applicant's attention is directed to the figure below.

Claim 1 at present only requires that “some” (which could be as little as two) of the bristle bundles have an inclined as defined in the claim and that the adjacent bundles have an inclined surface oriented relative to each other at an angle other than 90 and 180 degrees. As defined in claim 1, inclined surface A of one bundle and inclined surface B of another adjacent bundle are oriented relative to each other at other than 90 and 180 degrees.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 7 and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Underwood et al (USP 6,035,476) in view of Carlucci et al (USP 6,735,804). The modification of the head shape and the addition of other tufts of non-circular cross-section as well as the addition of equal-length tufts is taught by Carlucci and would be obvious to one of ordinary skill as being an art-recognized tuft arrangement.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 29 August 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's primary argument pertains to the last three lines of claim

1. The examiner has attempted to identify two inclined surfaces of adjacent bundles in figure 6 of Underwood which seem to be oriented at angles other than 90 or 180 degrees relative to each other. The claim at present only requires SOME (which could be as little as two) having the recited inclined surface(s) which are thus oriented as defined in the last three lines of claim 1. The claim does not preclude the presence of additional bundles or inclined surfaces thereof which have a different orientation.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mark Spisich whose telephone number is (571) 272-1278. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th (5:30-3:00), Alternate Fri off.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Joseph J. Hail can be reached on (571) 272-4485. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
